NUMBER 77.

DIVERS ARE AT WORK.

More of the Submarine Boys Sent to Havana.

INQUIRY ALSO HAS BEGUN.

Enlistments for the Navy Have Been Authorized to Fill the Vacancies Caused by the Maine Disaster.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Admiral Sigsbee telegraphed from Key West that he had sent five divers to Captain Sigsbee and asked if that was sufficient.

The acting chief of the navigation bureau, Captain Dickens, at once directed the admiral to put himself in communication with Captain Sigsbee and learn his needs at first hands.

The business of the navy department is getting back to its normal condition, as is evidenced by the fact that an order has been issued to discontinue the special telegraph service which was established with Key West, and hereafter the office at that place will close at 10 p. m. as formerly.

Commander Forsythe, the commandant at Key West, has also asked permission of the department to stop his daily bulletins, and this has been granted.

Steps have been taken by the navy department to fill the vacancies in the enlisted branch of the navy caused by the loss of most of the crew of the Maine. The legal quota is now about 800 short, and arrangements have been made for the immediate enlistment of about that number of men.

Telegraphic orders have been sent to the recruiting officers in charge of the receiving ships at New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk authorizing them to make the enlistments immediately.

These enlistments are in addition to those previously authorized to complete the crews of the monitors Puritan and Terror and the dispatch boat Dolphin. In each case it was specified that the recruits should be citizens of the United States.

There will be no difficulty whatever in securing these men, inasmuch as applications are on file far exceeding the requirements of the navy for some time to come, unless congress shall immediately comply with the recommendations of the department for an increase of 1,000 men in the enlisted strength of the navy.

Numerous letters and telegrams have been received at the department from individuals desiring to join the navy, asking to be enlisted immediately. A telegram was received from an organization in Detroit offering the immediate services of 10,000 citizens of that city in case of need. Patriotic offers have also been received from other places.

The Inquiry Begins.

Havana, Feb. 22.—The board of inquiry into the Maine disaster met on the lighthouse tender Mangrove, with Captains Sampson and Chadwick and Lieutenant Commanders Potter and Marx present. Captain Sampson presided, and Lieutenant Commander Marx, recently executive officer of the Maine, acted as recorder. Captain Sigsbee, the commander of the Maine, was the first witness called. He was under examination three hours.

Courtesies Not to Be Extended.

Washington, Feb. 22.—The social courtesies which the government intended to extend to the officers of the Vizcaya have been abandoned on account of the Maine catastrophe. As a result the stay of the Vizcaya at New York will probably be materially shortened, and she is likely to sail within the next three days, probably on Thursday next. The ship probably will proceed direct to Havana.

No Sympathy From Spaniards.

Havana, Feb. 22.—At the funeral of the Maine's seamen the Cuban women in the streets were almost all dressed in mourning, while the Spanish women wore colors. The only American flags in the whole procession were two small ones about three by six inches. Americans were assailed with jeers by royal Spanish rabble.

For Obvious Reasons.

Washington, Feb. 22.—For obvious reasons Captain Sigsbee, at Havana, is making the most strenuous efforts to hasten the recovery of the bodies, probably nearly 100 in number, still imprisoned in the wreck of the Maine.

Not at Halfmast.

Havana, Feb. 22.—On Wednesday, the day after the Maine explosion, the flags of the Spanish warship were not at halfmast. The vessels of all other nationalities had paid this slight tribute to the dead.

Very Significant Fact.

Havana, Feb. 22.—Just previous to the Maine disaster, the Spanish man-of-war, which was anchored near the United States cruiser, changed her moorings, a fact which is considered very significant.

Monument to Their Memory.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Representative Cummings of New York introduced a resolution appropriating $100,000 for a monument in New York to the memory of the men killed in the Maine explosion.

Still the Naval Attache.

New York, Feb. 22.—Lieutenant Commander Sobral states that he is still the naval attache of the Spanish legation in Washington.

Sobral's Recall Gazetted.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Notwithstanding the statement of Lieutenant Sobral that he is still the naval attache of the Spanish legation, his recall was regularly gazetted on Jan. 24.

Will Ignore Sobral's Vapors.

Washington, Feb. 22.—The state department, after learning officially that Lieutenant Commander Sobral was no longer recognized as an attache of the Spanish legation, decided to ignore the interview attributed to him, which it at first was disposed to resent.

A Boat Approached.

New York, Feb. 22.—William L. Carlin, who has just arrived here from Havana, says he saw a boat approach the Maine a few moments before the explosion.

Bold Spanish Threat.

Havana, Feb. 22.—Irresponsible Spaniards declare that if another United States warship is sent to Havana it also will be blown up.

The Time Fixed.

Madrid, Feb. 22.—The Vizcaya will leave New York not later than Wednesday.

DEFENSE BEGINS.

What Sheriff Martin Expects to Prove to the Jury.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 22.—After the prosecution in the trial of Sheriff Martin and his deputies had finished, Mr. Ferris presented in detail the facts of the case as the defense hopes to prove them.

It will endeavor to show that there had been rioting throughout the region; that the sheriff was justified in calling out the posse, and that he was also justified in ordering the shooting at Lattimer if he deemed it necessary.

He then detailed the movements of the strikers from the time they left Harwood until they reached Lattimer.

"There," he said, "the sheriff advanced alone to meet them. Instantly there was a tumult of yells. Five or six men pounced upon the sheriff, seized him, shoved him into a ditch on the left of the road and began beating him. Two of them flourished revolvers at him, and a third made a savage stab at him with a knife."

"The sheriff in his struggles freed his right arm and drew his revolver and snapped it at one of his assailants. It would not go off. Instantly the man, Novatna, struck him a vicious blow in the face with his fist and knocked him to his knees."

"All at once a revolver shot rang out from the rushing mob—then another—then three close together—then a rattling volley from the guns, which lasted a few seconds—less than half a minute—and ceased when the mob gave way."

"The order to fire was given—by whom we do not know—but was none too soon, for the head of the charging column had rushed within 15 feet of the deputies' line before the attack was repulsed."

The first witness for the defense was Mrs. Catherine W. Eisenborn. She said: "The strikers gathered at Harwood on the day of the shooting, and one of them, Gasperick, who testified for the state, entered Mike Kinaski's house and tried to get him to go out, crying, 'If you don't come, we'll kill you.' Kinaski was in hiding and escaped, and as the strikers departed they cried, 'We'll show the white people what we'll do when we come back.' I saw the strikers chase a number of people. They were all armed with clubs and stones and some had revolvers."

Mrs. Eliza Grace of Harwood said her husband ran into the brush when he heard the strikers were approaching. He was afraid of them. "They tramped through the fruit garden," said Mrs. Grace, "and broke my bean poles in two to make clubs. They caught John Edmondson and would have taken him along forcibly had not his wife clung to him and begged them to release him."

Mrs. Michael Gallagher of Harwood said she was stolen by the strikers, and Mrs. Charles Miller said her husband had gone to West Hazleton when he heard the strikers were approaching.

Blizzard Ended.

Milwaukee, Feb. 22.—The blizzard has finally spent its fury. The record of the weather bureau shows a fall of 22 inches in two days. The best previous record was in 1881, when a fall of 26 inches was recorded in four days.

A MYSTERY UNSOLVED

Big Discrepancy Between Books Not Yet Explained.

THE MONEY NOT IN SIGHT.

Five Thousand Dollars Is the Amount Unaccounted For and the County Treasurer Has No Vouchers For It.

Wabash, Ind., Feb. 22.—The discrepancy of $5,000 between the books of the city school board of Elkhart and the accounts of the treasurer of Elkhart county remains unexplained.

County Treasurer Holdeman insists that the money was paid to E. Kerstetter, treasurer of the school board, but has no receipts to show for it, saying he turned them back to Kerstetter in settlement.

The records of the treasurer's office are all straight.

HOTEL BURNED.

No Lives Were Lost, but Several Guests Were Injured.

Prescott, A. T., Feb. 22.—A disastrous fire occurred here about 11 p. m., resulting in the total destruction of the Johnson House. The house contained between 20 and 30 guests, and the fire made such headway before being discovered that they lost nearly everything and many had narrow escapes. No fatalities occurred, but a number of persons were seriously injured.

Missionary For Klondike.

Tipton, Ind., Feb. 22.—Rev. J. J. Blackburn of this county, presiding elder of the Holmes' Christian churches of this district, has been asked by a St. Louis religious extension society to go to the Klondike country and establish his church. The society offers to pay his expenses, build him a church and guarantee him a salary sufficient to pay him for the rough experience. He has taken the offer under consideration, and will likely accept.

A Suspicious Death.

Anderson, Ind., Feb. 22.—Arrangements are being made to exhumate the body of John Richardson, who died 10 days ago, for the purpose of making a post-mortem examination. W. H. Richardson, his uncle, makes startling charges, in which he holds that John came to his death by reason of salivation produced by parties whose names are not given, by dosing him with blue mass pills and then giving him a drink of vinegar.

The Judge Has Opposition.

Shelbyville, Ind., Feb. 22.—The Democrats organized for the campaign by electing new committeemen. The attempt of L. J. Hackney, judge of the supreme court, to get control of the central committee, created a bitter contest, which resulted in a Waterloo to the judge. The Democrats are opposed to his renomination for supreme judge, because, as they allege, he supported McKinley and the gold standard two years ago.

Attacked by a Man.

Bedford, Ind., Feb. 22.—The 12-year-old daughter of A. A. Lister was attacked on the street by a man, but her screams brought speedy assistance. Pursued by the mother of the child, he ran for life. At about the same hour four ugly men attempted to break into the office of J. W. Thompson, where only the stenographer was doing some work, but they were frightened away.

Tried to Drown a Woman.

Indianapolis, Feb. 22.—Will Kinsey, colored, created excitement here by chasing Emma Shepherd, white, through one of the principle streets. The woman, nearly denuded of clothing and screaming with terror, ran into Clay & Thomburg's drug store for protection. The clerk fired a revolver at Kinsey, who had followed her into the store. Nobody was hit. Kinsey had attempted to drown the woman by throwing her into the canal.

The Deadly Cigarette.

Wabash, Ind., Feb. 22.—Fred Lego, a young man of this city, is dead of hemorrhages, due to cigarette smoking. The drugs in the cigarettes destroyed the tissues in the upper lip, which was eaten away. The veins were exposed and blood flowed copiously. The loss was so great that the life of the young man could not be saved.

THE SPIRITED CONTEST

Over a Bill to Pay For Damages to Church Property

WAS THE HOUSE FEATURE.

Many Private Pension Bills Which Came Over From a Previous Session Were Acted Upon During the Day.

Washington, Feb. 22.—It was private bill day in the house, and but little was accomplished owing to the fact that most of the time was consumed in the passage of private pension bills coming over from the Friday night session three weeks ago.

The feature of the day was the spirited contest over the bill to pay Newberry college, a Lutheran institution in South Carolina, $15,000 for damages by federal troops. It was finally passed.

On motion of Mr. Bailey, the Democratic leader, the house voted—58 to 35—to observe Washington's birthday by adjourning, but Mr. Dingley raised the point of no quorum, and before further action could be taken the house recessed under the rule until 2 o'clock.

The Republicans desired to go ahead with the sundry civil appropriation bill.

At the night session of the house the private calendar was cleared. Thirty-eight pension bills and two bills removing charges of desertion were passed.

Among the pension bills was one granting a pension of $30 per month to Margaret Custer Calhoun, a sister of General Custer. This bill has already passed the senate.

In the Senate.

Washington, Feb. 22.—For three hours the senate had under discussion the bill providing for the fixing of the twelfth and subsequent censuses.

It was so amended as to place the census bureau under the secretary of the interior, but the extended discussion which followed disclosed so wide a divergence of views on the part of senators as to the various features of the measure that no further action was taken.

A resolution offered by Mr. Allison (Neb.) directing the committee on naval affairs to make an investigation of the disaster to the battleship Maine was adopted without debate.

Lieutenant Devore Returns.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Lieutenant Devore, military aid to Secretary Alger, has returned to Washington from Norway, where he went to bring on the reindeer purchased by Dr. Jackson for use in the Alaskan relief expedition. He reports that the animals were all safely shipped on the steamer Manitoban, which sailed directly from Norway for New York across the North sea.

Silence to Be Maintained.

Washington, Feb. 22.—It was stated that it will be the policy of the house leaders to prevent, as far as possible, any agitation of matters relating to Cuba or the Maine disaster in the immediate future. Pending the result of the official investigation they believe it is wise and the part of good policy to maintain silence.

Appropriations Scaled Down.

Washington, Feb. 22.—A sweeping reduction of over $8,000,000 from the amount carried by the current law is made in the sundry civil appropriation bill reported to the house, the aggregate appropriation carried being $44,749,893.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1898.

For Kentucky, Generally fair, preceded by light snow in eastern portions; warmer; variable winds.

GOVERNOR BRADLEY has not yet acted on any bill sent him by the Legislature. Only eight or ten have reached his desk.

It looks as though Mr. McKinley prefers to pocket all the indignities and outrages offered the Chief Executive and the country rather than offend the money magnates of the East.

The Cincinnati Post should shoot the artist who attempted to picture the murder of the Boyds and the trial of Amos Riggs. Perhaps it would be better for the Post to go out of the illustrating business.

HIGH TARIFF.

It Has Paralyzed the Woolen Hat Industry. Factories to Make Fur Goods.

READING, PENN., Feb. 20.—High tariff rates in the Dingley bill is killing the wool hatting industry, one of the greatest in this section. Reading is one of the centers of the trade in the United States. Here there are a dozen large factories, employing over 1,800 hands. Each successive tariff bill has put up the rates on imported wools, but the manufacturers have been unable to maintain prices.

Four firms are now building annexes to their factories, and will go into the making of fur hats, with wool hats as a side issue. With the exception of one grade the fur comes to this country free of duty. Australia sends most of it. It is clipped from the hides of millions of rabbits killed in that country.

Big sums are now being spent in new machinery, and the hatters will be compelled to learn practically a new trade. They formerly made from $75 to $125 a month, but their earnings have dropped 60 percent. Where manufacturers formerly received $18 to $24 a dozen for wool hats they get $1.50 to $4. They say they are unable to sell their product at profitable figures, with high tariff on wool, as against the fur hat, where there is hardly a tariff on the raw material.

Several years ago they endeavored to form a trust, and combine all the wool hat factories of the country in one pool to bolster prices, but this failed, and now an entire revolution is being effected in the trade. Outside of the Reading district there are wool hat factories in New York and Massachusetts, and it is expected that they will soon make the change.

FLAG PULLED DOWN.

Indignation Shown Toward Spain by Some Dayton Workmen.

Dayton, O., Feb. 22.—The National Cash Register company is holding a convention of agents from all over the world, and, among other countries, Spain is represented. In honor of the various nations the different flags were displayed at the factory.

Objection was made to the Spanish flag by the workmen, and 12 Spanish flags displayed about the works were pulled down and torn into shreds.

President John H. Patterson of the company ordered 24 Spanish flags put up to replace the ones torn down. This made the 2,000 workmen angry and trouble was feared.

Sixty-one workmen struck because President Patterson put two non-union men at work in the department where they were employed.

Lenten Services.

At the Church of the Nativity services will be: Beginning to-morrow, Ash Wednesday, at 10:30 a. m. and 4 p. m.; every week day thereafter until Good Friday at 4 p. m. Sunday services at the usual hours with the Holy Communion every Sunday at the 10:30 service. Everybody welcome.

Philadelphia, Feb. 22.—President McKinley, accompanied by his secretary, J. Addison Porter, arrived here in the private car of President Frank Thompson of the Pennsylvania railroad. The president delivered an oration at the Washington birthday exercises of the University of Pennsylvania at the Academy of Music.

MAYSVILLE MAN HONORED.

Mr. Wm. H. Cox Chosen a Member of the State Y. M. C. A. Executive Committee. Words of Praise From the Press.

In the press of business and hurry during the Y. M. C. A. convention last week, the BULLETIN's representative overlooked some items of interest, one of which was the election of members of the State Executive Committee.

There are twenty-four members of the State Executive Committee, eight of whom are elected each year to serve for three years. The members elected at the recent session were: Douglas Putnam, Ashland; L. M. Rice, Louisville; George L. Burton, Louisville; Dr. A. C. Davidson, Georgetown; W. H. Cox, Maysville; J. A. Mitchell, Bowling Green; George H. Cox, Owensboro.

The Lexington Leader in its convention news says: "Maysville has had the honor of entertaining the most successful Y. M. C. A. meeting ever held in Kentucky in point of work accomplished and in the character of the men in attendance and the speakers. Its influence will be felt throughout Kentucky. The delegates are loud in their praise of the hospitality of the Maysville people."

The Louisville Commercial thus compliments the ladies: "The Woman's Committee of Maysville are unusually active and have been extremely useful in helping to entertain visitors. The Chairman, Mrs. Milton Russell, is in every way qualified for the position she holds."

The Commercial also has these notes: "One of the most pleasant features of the convention has been the singing of Mr. John P. Hillis, who is well known in Kentucky and elsewhere as an evangelistic singer of ability. He was associated for a number of years with the noted evangelist, Rev. B. Fay Mills."

"The church in which the meetings of the association were held is one of the prettiest in the State. It belongs to the First Presbyterian congregation of Maysville."

"The genial State Secretary, Mr. Henry E. Rosevear, has been helpful to all men and all women who have attended the convention, and it is due largely to his thoughtfulness that the session has been such a pleasant one to the delegates."

UP IN ARMS.

Frankfort Republicans Angry With Collector Roberts Over a Late Appointment.

FRANKFORT, Ky., February 20.—The white Republicans in this revenue district are up in arms over what they term the treacherous conduct of Collector Sam Roberts in appointing a negro storekeeper over the heads of a number of white Republicans, who have taken the civil service examination and are on the eligible list.

They say it may be all right for Roberts to observe the civil service rules in refusing to remove any one except for incompetency, but to remove some Democrat for incompetency and then appoint a negro, who, they claim is not on the eligible list, over all the working white Republicans who have tested their competency by an examination, is party treason, according to local Republicans.

The appointment has been kept quiet and became known only to-night that on Friday Roberts had suspended Hyde, a Democrat, on duty in this county, and temporarily appointed Ed. Lane, a Frankfort negro, to succeed him. Lane had a job already as porter for the State Insurance Department, and was drawing a reasonably good salary. The white Republicans here, who have no work and need money for bread, will hold a meeting to make a serious kick. Such an appointment by the Collector can last only thirty days.

JUDGE PUGH

Successful in Pushing Some Southern War Claims During Present Session.

WASHINGTON, February 19.—Congressman Pugh is one of the few Southern members who has been successful with Southern war claim bills. Since the meeting of Congress he has introduced twelve separate war claim bills for his constituents, and by his persistency he has succeeded in securing a favorable report on every one of the bills, which are now on the calendar.

He said this afternoon that he didn't expect to secure the passage of the bills just now for the reason that this is to be an economical session, but he is confident they will all go through at the short session by which time there will be ample money in the Treasury to pay all just claims against the Government.

Mr. Pugh believes that in a very little while the Dingley bill will produce more than enough revenue to pay current expenses.

THE DEATH OF GEORGE WASHINGTON.

[Ulster County Gazette January 4th, 1893.]
What means that solemn dirge that strikes my ear?

What means those mournful sounds—why shines the tear?
Why toll the bells the awful knell of fate?
Ah!—Why those sighs that do my fancy ate!

Where'er I turn the general gloom appears,
Those mourning badges fill my soul with fears;
Hark!—Yonder rueful noise!—'tis done!—'tis done!

The silent tomb invades our Washington!
Must virtues exalted yield their breath?
Must bright perfection find relief in death?
Must mortal greatness fall?—a glorious name!

What then is riches, honor and true fame?
The august Chief, the father and the friend,
The generous patriot—let the muse commend:
Columbia's glory and Mount Vernon's pride,
There lies enshrined with numbers at his side!

There let the sigh respondent from the breast,
Heave in rich numbers!—let the gloomy zest
Of tears refulgent beam in graceful love;
And the sable mourning our affliction prove.

Weep!—kindred mortals—weep!—no more you'll find,
A man so just, so pure, so firm in mind;
Rejoicing angels hail the heavenly sage!
Celestial spirits greet the wonder of the age.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON, of Tuskegee, Ala., a colored leader, has written an open letter to the Louisiana Constitutional Convention, commending the restriction of the ballot as a protection against the ignorant of both races and urging that in the degree that you close the ballot box against the ignorant you open the school house, all of which is very true. His suggestions ought to be adopted in every State.

NAPOLEON BONAPARTE is the central figure in secular history. His wonderful prowess astonished the world, his defeat, after a long season of triumphs, threw into oblivion a man who almost changed the status of the world. In our city the many literary clubs are absorbed with him and his period, a disease which is contagious, for hardly a magazine but what contains articles about Napoleon. Wherever people have a chance to hear about him they go, not because it's a fad, but because there is a magnet in his every act, a lodestone in his very name which draws the ear of most everyone. March 1st (Tuesday night) at 8 o'clock a very brilliant lecture will be given by a literary character, a gentleman whom to hear is a rare treat. Watch for further notice.

LARGE INSURANCE POLICIES.

Many American Millionaires Who Pay For High Life Risks.

The millionaires in this country almost without exception are heavily insured, says the Manchester Union.

George K. Vanderbilt has lately taken out a $1,000,000 policy. John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, carries insurance aggregating $1,525,000, which is distributed among different companies, no one of which assumes more than one-eighth of the gross amount. Mrs. Leland Stanford, who is more than seventy-one years of age, carries a policy in favor of the Leland Stanford University of $1,000,000, the premium on this amounting to $170,000 a year. If Mrs. Stanford dies within ten years the university will receive $1,000,000, while if she lives more than ten years it will be the recipient of $2,000,000. Col. Albert B. Hilton, of New York, is insured for $1,250,000. August Belmont has $6,000,000 of insurance; Frank A. Ehret, $270,000; Theodore A. Havemeyer, $500,000; Chauncey M. Depew, $500,000; F. O. Matthiessen, $285,000; Pierre Lorillard, $310,000; Edwin A. McAlpin, $200,000; William P. Clyde, $200,000; John D. Crimmins, $250,000; P. B. Armstrong, $232,000; Alexander Barrett, $300,000; George K. Anderson, $400,000; I. B. Newcombe, $250,000, and J. C. Osgood, $250,000.

The United States have a greater number of persons who carry insurance policies than any other country in the world.

Calvert Versus Weddle.

In affirming the above case taken up from this county the Court of Appeals says:

In an action by appellee, seeking to enjoin appellant from obstructing a passway over appellant's land, held: That as the proof and deeds of the parties show that appellee was entitled to said passway, the judgment of the Circuit Court removing the obstruction, and enjoining further obstruction, was proper.

George W. Adair and E. L. Worthington for appellants. A. M. J. Cochran for appellee.

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physician's prescriptions or other preparations."

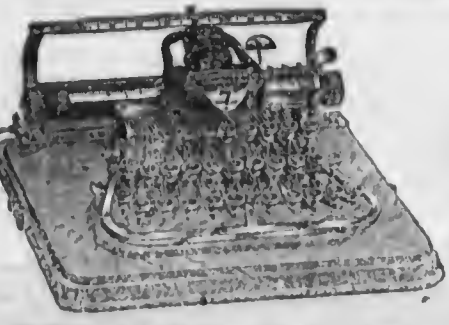

Rev. John Burgus, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a Minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for fifty years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store.

The marriage of Mr. Jos. A. Diener and Miss Margaret Mary O'Donnell was solemnized at 6:30 o'clock this morning at St. Patrick's Church, Rev. A. T. Ennis officiating. The attendants were Mr. E. L. Willett and Mr. M. S. O'Donnell, the latter a brother of the bride.

The bride wore a suit of cadet blue, satin trimmings, and carried flowers. The groom wore the conventional black.

Following the ceremony there was a wedding breakfast at the Diener House. Later the happy couple left to spend a few days in Cincinnati. They will make their home at the Diener House, the groom assisting his mother in the management of the hotel.

He has spent most of the winter here and when he arrives at his far-off home it will be mid-winter in that land, so this will be one year in which he will enjoy no summer. COMMITTEE'S APPEAL.

Maysville Property Owners Asked to Aid Washington Fire Company—Subscriptions to Date.

The following is self-explanatory:

To the Property Holders and Citizens of Maysville: On Sunday morning, January 30th, the Washington Fire Company lost by fire their home together with the opera house upon which they depended for their support and upon which our citizens depended for an amusement hall. In the destruction of the building there went up in smoke and flame the hard earnings of the company, covering a period of forty-eight years and amounting to over $12,000. They are now without shelter and without a single dollar—nothing left save their honor. The firemen of our city have always been faithful to duty in saving our property, and upon many occasions have saved our city from total destruction. It is now proposed, and due them, to rebuild their home, and for this purpose a subscription has been started and a liberal amount secured. Will you be one to assist in this effort by a subscription? Respectfully,

THOMAS A. DAVIS,
ALEX. CALHOUN,
J. D. DYE,
WM. H. COX,
HORACE J. COCHRAN.

Every property owner in the city is directly interested in this matter, and a liberal response to this appeal will enable the company to begin the work of rebuilding as soon as spring opens.

If you have not subscribed and desire to do so, send your name either to the BULLETIN or to any of the above committee, stating amount.

CARELESSNESS in girlhood causes the greatest suffering and unhappiness in after life. Little irregularities and weaknesses in girls should be looked after promptly and treatment given at once. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription promotes regularity of all feminine functions, makes strength and builds up a sturdy health with which to meet the trials to come. The Favorite Prescription is not a universal panacea. It is good but for one thing. It is directed solely at one set of organs.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a 1008 page medical work, profusely illustrated, will be sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover postage only. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of Lela Duzan, aged fourteen years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duzan, of Rectortville, Ky., who passed away Friday night at 9 o'clock after two years of patient suffering. Just last Friday night. Angels called upon this earth, Took one of its precious flowers And soared away to their heavenly bowers. Just like a flower, pure and white, Amid us she did roam, Greeting all like sunshine bright, Till her savior called her home, Now in her lonely casket keeps: They miss her smiling face, Her gentle voice and loving kins, Her tender, sweet embrace, Heaven now retains their treasure; Earth her lonely casket keeps: And the sunbeam love to linger, Where their daughter Lela sleeps. NELLIE MAY GREELY, Maysville, Ky.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.

Another Week of Light Receipts—Prices Very Satisfactory—Advance on Some Grades.

Furnished by Glover & Durrett, Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 4,158 hhds., with receipts for the same period 2,109 hhds. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 24,136 hhds. Sales of the crop of 1897 on our market to this date amount to 24,517 hhds.

New Burley.—We have had another week of light receipts and heavy sales of burley tobacco. Prices for new burley have been very satisfactory to sellers; the bright grades from the commonest trash to the best lugs, have held the advance reported last week, closing strong. All other sorts have been active and strong except the greenish types, the bidding on these was not quite so spirited. Buyers are discriminating against the low grades when in soft order.

Old Burley.—The market has been good for old burley selling from $5 down. The better grades selling above $10, are some stronger but are still selling for less than the same quality of new tobacco. We feel that there must be an improvement in the sort.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco (1897) crop:

Trash (dark or damaged)	$ 3 00/4 50
Common color trash	4 00/6 00
Medium to good color trash	6 00/9 00
Common lugs, not of color	5 00/8 50
Common color lugs	6 50/8 50
Medium to good color lugs	9 50/11 00
Common to medium leaf	9 00/11 00
Medium to good leaf	14 00/16 00
Do to fine leaf	15 00/17 00
Select wrapery leaf	18 00/25 00
